

All Together Now

Reading & Activity Log

Adults (18 and up)

Program runs from June 5th through July 30th

Goal: Read as much as you can and do as many activities as you can. Each time you read a book or listen to an audiobook, you can fill out a raffle ticket to be entered into a weekly prize drawing. Earn additional raffle tickets by doing activities. Raffle tickets can be dropped off at the main desk at the library. Winners will be drawn weekly and notified.

Complete the Summer Reading Program by reading at least two books and completing three activities. Earn a free book if you complete the program.

All participants will be entered to win the Grand Prize of a 80 min Daily Excursion or 80 min Sundown Cruise on the St. Croix River from Taylors Falls Scenic Boat Tours.

Visit our Summer Reading Program website for more information: amerylibrary.org/summer

For every book you read or audiobook you listen to you can earn an entry to the weekly raffle.

Fill out the info & return this ticket to the Amery Library.

If you are using the dropbox, please place your ticket in an envelope/ziplock labeled "Adult Raffle"

Disability Culture Book Challenge

25% of adults in the United States have one or more functional disabilities. But what does that mean, exactly? Disability is often misunderstood as applying only to people in wheelchairs. In fact, many disabilities are invisible or do not relate primarily to mobility, such as people who are neurodivergent or have a chronic illness. To learn more about disabilities, read a book from the attached list (also on our website), or read one that is similar.

Homelessness Book Challenge

Homelessness is on the rise in the United States. As of January 2020, there were an estimated 580,466 homeless Americans. Men are far more likely to be homeless than women, and rates of homelessness tend to be higher among historically marginalized racial groups. To learn more about this important topic, read a book on homelessness. See the attached list or our website for suggested books.
