

Hello Trevor,

It's not the first week of Spring, but it is feeling like Spring so Happy Spring!

This week on Tuesday our Mystery Book Club had their monthly meeting. In May, they will be meeting to discuss the first book in the Longmire series - The Cold Dish. Copies are available at the library if you enjoy a good mystery and are looking for a book club. On Wednesday morning, our Storytime program had almost 40 attendees! Then Wednesday afternoon, we had the second class in our Genealogy series. This class meets the 2nd Wednesday of the month at 3 p.m. Then on the 4th Wednesday of the month, there is a Genealogy Workgroup at 3 p.m. where you can come and work on your own projects, share ideas, and ask questions of other people. On Thursday night, teens took over the library for their monthly Teen Thursday program.

Next Monday is Income Tax Day. It is also a No-School Day, so we are having a Board Game Bonanza from 1 to 3 p.m. Drop in and play board games that teach math and money skills for a fun, educational afternoon with the whole family! Recommended for teens, kids that are at least five years old, and their adults.

Next Thursday is the third one of the month so that means it's Third Thursday Craft Night. We will be making DIY Cleaning Supplies between 5 and 7 p.m. This is a drop-in program so come by anytime and make some cleaning supplies (while supplies last). (18 and over).

On Friday, Taylor Swift's new album is being released! We are having a Tortured Poets Party from 4 to 6 p.m. We'll make bracelets, play trivia games, create blackout poetry, and more! Attendees are encouraged to come dressed in Taylor Swift merch or an outfit inspired by one of her albums, songs, or style.

The week ends with our monthly Saturday Storytime at 10 a.m. followed by our tween/teen Brunch and Books from 12 to 1 p.m. We will be discussing A Place to Hang the Moon by Kate Albus (juvenile) and Artifice by Sharon Cameron (young adult).

Thanks for reading,
the Library Staff

FRIENDS OF THE AMERY AREA PUBLIC LIBRARY

Friends of the Library Book Sale at Amery Area Public Library, Lower Level

- Thursday, May 2nd 3 PM-5 PM
- Saturday, May 4th 9:30 AM-12:00 PM

Want to come to the library, but also want to find some books to add to your permanent collection at home that you'll never have to return? Stop into the library during a Friends of the Library book sale! These book sales are free will donation only and they offer a wide range of books to choose from all the way from children's picture books to westerns to books on quilting. Their next book sales are May 2 and 4, but you can always check the calendar on our website or come to the library to find when the next book sale will be. Earnings from the book sales go towards library programming and collections.

We hope to see you there!
