

Amery Area Public Library Newsletter

Friday, April 19th, 2024

Hello Trevor,

It was a fun week at the library! But then isn't every week at a library fun? What better place to spend part of your week? Where else can you get newspapers and books to read with a coffee, items you can take home to enjoy for free, and a variety of programs to participate in?

Thursday is the third one of the month so that meant it was Third Thursday Craft Night. We made DIY Cleaning Supplies including a laundry stain remover spray and toilet bowl cleaner tablets.

Taylor Swift's new album is out today! To celebrate, we're having a Tortured Poets Party from 4 to 6 p.m. Participants will have fun making friendship bracelets, learn about poetic devices using examples from Taylor Swift's lyrics, and create poetry of their own.

This Saturday we have our monthly Saturday Storytime at 10 a.m. followed by our tween/teen Brunch and Books from 12 to 1 p.m. We will be discussing A Place to Hang the Moon by Kate Albus (juvenile) and Artifice by Sharon Cameron (young adult).

We are busy gearing up for our Summer Reading Program which runs from the start of June to the end of July! Details will be announced soon.

Thanks for reading,
the Library Staff

Spotlight:
Meeting Rooms

Do you ever find yourself in need of a quiet room outside of your work or your house to gather with friends or colleagues? The library has you covered with our many meeting rooms available for your use! All you need is a library card in order to reserve one of our three rooms and you can do this in-person at the library or by using our new meeting and study room scheduling software online, which can be found on our website under the Services menu tab.

The three rooms you have to choose from vary in size from our smallest room, the downstairs study room, which is perfect for times when you need a quiet room to yourself, to our biggest room, the vault room, which works great for giving presentations to large groups of people.

Next time you stop in, be sure to check out these rooms and don't be afraid to make a reservation!
