Friday, March 15th, 2024

Hello Trevor,

It was another busy and fun week here at the library. Tuesday, our Mystery Book Club met to discuss the book The Keeper of Lost Causes by Jussi Adler-Olsen. In April they will be meeting to discuss The K Team by David Rosenfelt. Also on Tuesday, the Death Cafe group met. Wednesday our DIY Storytime program continues at 10 a.m. Then Wednesday afternoon we had the first class in our Genealogy program. At the end of the meeting, the people present asked the instructor if she would be willing to have a session where they could come and ask questions and get help with their individual projects. She agreed. The first Genealogy Work Group will be Wednesday, March 27th from 3 - 4 p.m. Thursday our Russian Club met to continue learning Russian from a native speaker (this was a one-time schedule change from the usual Tuesday meeting time). Also on Thursday, teenagers took over the library for our monthly Teen Thursday program.

Next week our programs start on Saturday, March 16th with our Brunch and Books book club. They are meeting Saturday at 12 p.m. for food and to discuss the books The Swifts: A Dictionary of Scoundrels by Beth Lincoln (juvenile) and Wrecker by Carl Hiaasen (young adult). Then on Tuesday the Russian Club returns to its 3:30 p.m. timeslot. Wednesday at 10 a.m. our DIY Storytime program continues. Thursday is the 3rd one of the month which means we are having our Third Thursday Crafting night. Join us as we make macrame rainbows to celebrate the arrival of spring. Then on Saturday, March 23rd we are having a Pysanky Ukrainian Egg Art program - see below for details.
