

Amery Area Public Library Newsletter

Friday, March 1st, 2024

Hello Trevor,

This week was another busy one at the library. On Tuesday, our weekly Russian Club met for the second time. If you are interested in learning Russian from a native speaker, this is the club for you! It meets every Tuesday at 3:30 p.m.

Wednesday, we had another large turnout for weekly Storytime! Miss Shanon demonstrated how to play a djembe, an African drum. In March, our weekly Storytimes will become DIY! Miss Emma will have books around a theme available for parents and caregivers to practice their storytelling by taking turns reading to each other. A craft and other activities or songs will also be provided.

On Thursday afternoon, our newest book club met. It is a Non-fiction Book Club where each member of the group chooses a different book to read about a common monthly theme. The theme that the group selected for March was Women's History. If you are interested in joining this book club, contact Trevor Richards at trichards@amerylibrary.org or 715-268-3431.

On Thursday night, our monthly History series continued with a talk on the Battle of the Alamo. March's talk will be about Benjamin Franklin, as he was born in March.

Friday was Home Delivery Day, and we took books to several patrons who cannot make it to the library. Click here for information about this program.

On Saturday, the Friends of the Library are having a book sale from 9:30 a.m. - 12 p.m.

Next Thursday our Books & Brews book club will be meeting at the Amery Ale Works to discuss the book The House in the Pines by Ana Reyes.

Thanks for reading,
the Library Staff

Spotlight:

Our parenting collection highlights our nonfiction books for parents about families and raising children. Some topics in this section include homeschooling, co-parenting, and supporting children with ADHD and/or autism. This section also has two kits: First Word Wipe-Clean Cards and Forest School Activity Cards! You can find these materials near the circulation desk downstairs, under the TV display.
