

Hello Trevor,

There are only two weeks left of our Summer Reading Program! We had a week full of poetry writing and cupcake decorating, and our monthly youth book club will be meeting tomorrow. There's still time to join in the fun, so take a look at what events we have coming up!

Next week is packed with programs, so there should be something for everyone! Kids who like to craft and write may be interested in our Bucket List Journal program, where we'll decorate mini journals and write about our dream goals and achievements. Pokémon fans, bring your cards to trade at Pokémon Club (or just bring yourself and have fun spending time with the community). Our highlight next week is The Magic of Isaiah, coming to Golden Age Manor to perform a comedy magic show for all ages! Our Non-fiction Book Club is meeting to discuss books about adventure, and next Saturday local art teacher Renee Anderson will be teaching adults how to paint! Call the library to register for the painting class (ages 18+).

The Amery Area Public Library Board of Trustees will have their regular monthly meeting on Monday, July 22.

Stay cool this week! We have air conditioning if you want to escape the heat and dive into a new story. Adventure Begins at Your Library!

Thanks for reading,
the Library Staff

The Magic of Isaiah

The Magic of Isaiah is coming back to town! We're bringing this exciting, interactive magic show to Golden Age Manor on July 25 at 2 PM. This show will amaze and entertain all ages! Join us as we learn the importance of reading and experience a magical show that's fun for everyone.
