

Hello Trevor,

We just finished week five of our Summer Reading Program. We had fun making Travel Memory Boards and smashing geodes to look for crystals.

Next week you can learn to polka, win a prize for best costume at our Mystery Book Club Detective Dress-up Contest, learn how to use military records and pension records in genealogical research, make travel coasters, come to a virtual six-author book talk, and attend a World Travel Party! That's seven events (plus our weekly Storytime program) in six days!

Have a great weekend and we hope to see you soon. Remember, Adventure Begins at Your Library!

Thanks for reading,
