

Amery Area Public Library Newsletter

Friday, February 14, 2025

Hello Trevor,

Happy Valentine's Day!

This week we had three programs: the monthly meeting of the Mystery Book Club, our weekly Storytime program, and our monthly Teen Thursday program. On Tuesday, our Youth Services Librarian Emma spent the day talking to our representatives at the Wisconsin State Capitol and sharing your Library Love Stories! Thank you for your support.

Tomorrow, Saturday February 15th, we are having our monthly Saturday Storytime program at 10 a.m. Then from 12 to 2 p.m. we are having our annual Galentine's Day Party. We were supposed to have this last Saturday, but it got snowed out. Grab your gal pals and celebrate the power of friendships! Join us for crafts, games, food, and drinks.

Next week we have five of our regular programs and one special one. The regular programs are: Chess Club, Homeschool Hangout, Family Game Night, Storytime, and a meeting of the Amery Library Wordsmiths, our adult writing group. Our special program is an author talk by local author Mark Peacock. See below for details on all of these programs.

Have a great week!

Thanks for reading,
the Library Staff

Spotlight Article: Board Game Collection

Would you like to try out a new board game before you decide if it's worth a buy? The Amery Area Public Library has a wide variety of board games available to check out and play at home. We have games ranging from classics, like Candyland and Connect Four, to newly released games, such as King of Tokyo and Ticket to Ride. Next time you stop in at the library browse our game selection and see if there is anything that you and your family might want to try out!
