

Amery Area Public Library Newsletter

Friday, February 21st, 2025

Hello Trevor,

It was a very cold week but next week the temperature will be in the 40s! Only 28 days until spring!

This week began with our monthly Saturday Storytime program and our annual Galentine's Day Party. People who came to the Galentine's Day Party were treated to a demonstration of Creativebug, our new craft database.

Then on Monday we had our bi-monthly chess club meeting. Tuesday we unfortunately were closed due to the cold - so we had to cancel our Homeschool Hangout and Family Game Night. We will be holding these programs in March - stay tuned for details. Thursday we had an author talk by local author Mark Peacock.

Next week we have our regularly scheduled Board of Trustees meeting on Monday, our monthly Pokémon Club meeting on Tuesday, Storytime on Wednesday, and then on Thursday we have the monthly meeting of the Non-fiction Book Club and our monthly history talk. This month's history talk will be about Thomas Jefferson. This Thursday and Saturday, the Friends of the Library will be having their monthly book sale. See below for details.

Have a great week!

Thanks for reading,
the Library Staff

THE SAGE OF MONTICELLO: THOMAS JEFFERSON

HISTORY NIGHT AT THE LIBRARY

Official Presidential portrait of Thomas Jefferson
(by Rembrandt Peale, 1800)

In his epitaph, Thomas Jefferson wrote that he wanted to be known for three things: The Declaration of Independence, The Virginia Statute for Religious Freedom and being the Father of the University of Virginia. But Jefferson was much more than that. He was an aristocrat, attorney, author, academic, architect, archaeologist, agriculturist, artist, astronomer, anthropologist and abolitionist? Jefferson was also a man of contradictions. While writing eloquently on liberty, freedom and independence Jefferson owned more than 600 slaves during his lifetime. The Sage of Monticello explores the many aspects of Jefferson's life that helped shape the nation.
